resources

the tools to make better programmes

The tools

Access Manawatu has many resources available to you, ensuring that you make the most of your time on air. These include;

Station staff

Studios

Training and support

Portable recording equipment

On line services

Station staff

Access Manawatu has highly qualified and experienced staff overseeing operations, so you know you are in good hands at all times.

The Station Manager is generally your first point of contact with Access Manawatu. You can always direct any enquiry to him.

The Programming Coordinator is your liaison for all studio and on-air related enquiries. You can request material / assistance and support from him.

The Accounts and Administration Coordinator is who you approach for financial queries and community notices.

Studios

The station has two fully equipped studios at your disposal.

The Production Studio is a highly versatile room, available for recording small performances, debates and group discussions. It is also the venue for our Training Programme.

The On-Air studio is where our live programmes go to air, and where our broadcasts originate from. This can also be converted to a second Production Facility in minutes!

Training and support

Access Manawatu offers regular training sessions with staff and invited experts.

Programme-Makers are also continually supported by staff, ensuring no-one feels out of their depth.

Portable recording equipment

Take a microphone where you need it. We have recorders available that are incredibly easy to use, allowing you to record elements of your programme off site (interviews, events coverage etc.). Just contact a member of staff to book a recorder.

On line services

www.accessmanawatu.co.nz offers visitors “On Demand” and “Live Streaming” options. It’s easy for programmes to become part of the scheme... Just ask!

Not only that, but we offer programmes dedicated “Shows Pages” where almost limitless information can be posted to support programmes.
